Mrobe Vendig know something else.

Kid McCoy and Jim Corbett have made up. They shook hands at an uptown restaurant the other night and appeared on the best of terms.

Corbett and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. leorge Considing were having a bite terday they did things which made the George Considine were having a bite Dodgers fell uneasy in their top-notch pened that Mr. and Mrs. McCoy were at another table in the same place.

Not being satisfied with having one heavy-weight under his management Tom O'Rourke has added another big slucer to his string. The addition Tom O'Rourke has added another big stager to his string. The addition to O'Rourke's stable is that big good-natured six-foot colored fighter. Bob Armstrong.

O'Rourke has for some time watched the movements of Armstrong. He has come to the conclusion recently that the big darkey is a second Peter Jackson when the latter was in his prime, and Fire! when the latter was in his prime, and has "bagged" Armstrong.

O'Rourke after getting Armstrons stored away in his managerial box, at once hustled the fighter into an automobile and went direct to a lawyer's office, where vapers were drawn up and signed. They say that O'Rourke shall manage one Armstrong for three years. The contract is an ironciad one.

Pahlen shoved Clarke's effort over. Beaumont didn't see three that were over the plate. Cross flung Ritchey's roller to the right place. No runs. Jone popped to O'Brien. Keeler singled. has become the manager of Bob Armistrong and fitted up a new stable for the big darky.

Sharkey and an idea that he was the only heavy-weight bruiser O'Rourke thought was a coming champion, but now that the latter has gone so far as to sign Armstrong for three years the chances are "Butterfiles" Tom will kick over the traces.

If O'Rourke and Sharkey ahould decide to sever their connections the chances are that the parting would requit in a match between Armstrong and the Sallor.

Well Bully Smith and Jon Wagner again got Dahlen's left. Two runs.

Well, Billy Smith and Joe Walcott are matched to fight at last. This fight should be a "peacherina," for whenever they meet they usually forget that ting in each other's face, taking a nose bite, calling each other pet names and getting in an occasional kick on each other's shine.

What a great fight these two men would make in a room with the door locked? One of them would surely jump out the window. Which would it be?

The announcement by Kid McCoy that he will never fight a heavyweight again, but will stick to the middleweight class. is certainly a wise move on the part of the clever Ktd.

McCoy in the first place should never have consented to fight the big fellows. Since the Kid has fought heavyweights his solar plexus has been punctured. his nose has been broken and his physique greatly shattered. Stick to the middleweights. Kid, they aren't such

Once again the Law and Order League come forward and tried to sto pugilism. This time it is in Paterson where an awful kick is being made against allowing fights to be held. It is to be hoped this crowd of can't-mind-their-own-business people will get a knockout blow.

It's a good thing none of the Law and Order League members is President of the United States. If such was the case many a fighter would do the "German act-throwing himself in the river or putting a rubber hose attached to a gas jet in his mouth or the like.

These are the days when the fighters are often seen shedding tears while passing the fighting clubs. They used to carry away many a hundred dollar bil out of those places by having their faces made a target of. It is no wonder the unfortunate chamois pushers weep when they gaze upon these Klondykes.

It would be a good idea for Manager Davis to have a coach on the lines day resulted as follows: during every inning of a game instead Pirst Race—Three-quart of letting the players sit on the bench and quarrel with each other.
